GENEALOGICAL

RECORD

of the

URIAH and ELIZABETH (MASTERS) ROSE
α
FAMILY

by

FRED W. ROSE

1963

Foreword

At the request of some of the younger members of the Rose Family I have compiled a genealogical record of the descendants of my grandparents, Uriah and Elizabeth (Masters) Rose. In some instances the information is not complete but I am going to publish what information I have. To the best of my knowledge every descendant is listed.

No publication of this kind is complete without some early history so I am including a very brief early history of both the Rose and Masters families. Much of the early history of the Rose family is incomplete but from about 1740 to the present time we have fairly accurate records. None of the names appearing in the early history are included in the index.

I feel that since this information has been collected that an effort should be made to keep the records up to date in the future. I am asking that when there are births, deaths, marriages or changes of addresses that you let me know so that I can keep the records up to date.

I wish to take this opportunity to thank the various members of the family, especially the mothers and grandmothers, for their cooperation in furnishing the data for this publication.

EARLY HISTORY of the ROSE FAMILY

INTRODUCTION

Robert Rose sailed from Ipswich, England, in the ship "Francis" and landed at Watertown with his wife and family in 1634. The following year they moved to Wethersfield, Conn. where some of the family still live. Some moved to Southold and Southampton, Long Island, where some of the family still live. They engaged in farming and whaling. About 1715 some of them moved to Ewing, New Jersey, and some to Cape May, New Jersey. Of those at Ewing came our branch. It is presumed that practically all of the New Jersey Roses moved to Indiana in the early part of the nineteenth century. Through the NewKirks and the intermarriage of the NewKirks with the Dubois we have some Huguenot blood. The NewKirks were originally the Van Nieuwkierckes from Holland. The Dubois were DuBois of Flanders in northern France. The Garrison family was of English descent coming to Linn, Mass. and later to New Jersey by the way of Long Island.

Note: The above is a copy of a paragraph found among the papers of William W. Rose.

THE EARLY ROSE FAMILY

ROBERT ROSE Sr. b 1594, of Ipswich, Suffolk Co. England, sailed from Ipswich with his wife, Margery, b 1594, and eight children, in April of 1634 on the ship "Francis" with Capt. Cutting, to the Massachusetts Bay Colony. They lived in Watertown, Mass. a short time then went to Wethersfield, Conn. late in 1634. While living at Wethersfield he became a large land owner, was Constable in 1639-1640, a Juror in 1641, and Representative to the General Court in 1641-2-3. In 1644 he moved to Branford, Conn. where he spent the remainder of his life. Shortly before his death in 1665, (Will dated Aug. 25, 1664 and proven at Branford April 4, 1865) he married (2) in 1664, Elizabeth, widow of Edward Parker.

Robert and Margery Rose had eleven children, the first eight being born in England.

- (1) John, b 1619 d 1683, married three times, five children from first marriage
- (2) Robert Jr. b 1620, d 1682/3, m Rebecca _____, had seven children.
- (3) Elizabeth, b 1621; d July 22, 1659, m Michael Taintor before 1649.
- (4) Mary, b 1623.
- (5) Samuel, b 1625, m Mary Tompkins, was one of the first settlers of Newark,
- (6) Sarah, b 1627.
- (7) Daniel, b 1631, m Elizabeth Goodrich, had eleven children.
- (8) Dorcas, b 1632, m Daniel Swayne.
- (9) Thomas.
- (10) Jonathan, d 1684, m Deliverence Charles, had five children.
- (11) Hannah.

Note: Some historians list John and Robert Rose Jr. as twins born in 1619, and Jonathan and Hannah as the oldest children and being born in 1611 and 1614.

Our branch of the Rose family went from Connecticut to Long Island, living at Southold and Southampton, where they engaged in farming and whaling. This branch of the Rose family was headed by John Rose who according to Uriah Rose Harris was the oldest son of Robert and Margery Rose. According to some of the early historians John Rose spent his life at Wethersfield, Conn. so I feel that the John Rose on Long Island was a grandson of Robert Rose.

JOHN ROSE, d April 17, 1697, m Abigail Raynor, b 1641, had seven children.

- (1) David.
- (2) Thomas.
- (3) James.

- (4) Hannah.
- (5) John.
- (6) William.
- (7) Martin, born about 1686, m Sarah Howell.

Note: Uriah Rose Harris in his records accounts for only the family of Martin Rose, our ancestor, but apparently a large number of the descendants of John Rose moved to New Jersey in the early part of the eighteenth century.

MARTIN ROSE, b 1686, m Sarah Howell. In about 1715 most of the Martin Rose family moved to Ewing, New Jersey. This family had nine children.

- (1) Zacheus, lived on Long Island.
- (2) Stephan, d Aug. 16, 1775, age 65 yrs. m Elizabeth Prout. Lived at Ewing, N.J.
- (3) Christopher. Lived in New Jersey.
- (4) John, d 1752, m Mary _____. (Our ancestor) Lived at Pittsgrove, N.J.
- (5) Sybil, m. Richard Lanning. Lived at Ewing, N.J.
- (6) Esther, Lived in New Jersey.
- (7) Sarah, Lived in New Jersey.
- (8) Abraham, Lived on Long Island.
- (9) Elizabeth, d 1806, age 90, Lived at Ewing, New Jersey, Never married.

JOHN ROSE, d 1752, m Mary _____. John and Mary Rose were living at Pittsgrove, Salem Co., New Jersey, by 1740. He is listed as one of the signers of the Covenant organizing the Pittsgrove Presbyterian Church on April 30, 1741. They had four children.

- (1) Hannah.
- (2) Elizabeth, baptized Aug. 10, 1740.
- (3) Abigail, baptized Aug. 22, 1742.
- (4) Ezekiel, b May 13, 1745, baptized June 9, 1745, d Dec. 5, 1824, married three times, (1) Elizabeth NewKirk, (2) Elizabeth More, Founder of our branch of the Rose family in Indiana.

Note: Dr. A.B. NewKirk in his book The NewKirk Family states that Ezekiel Rose was the son of John and Mary Rose. On page 62 Of Salem Tenth, compiled by H. Stanley Craig, we find the following information taken from the records of the Pittsgrove Presbyterian Church. John and Mary Rose and daughter Elizabeth, baptized Aug. 10, 1740, Abigail, baptized Aug. 22, 1742. On June 9, 1745 Ezekiel Rose was baptized and he is listed as the son of John and Elizabeth Rose. There is a possibility that John Rose was married a second time.

The ROSE FAMILY in INDIANA

In 1805 Jacob Dubois, of Salem Co. New Jersey, came to Franklin Co. Indiana looking for a place to establish a new home. He returned to New Jersey and as soon as the south east part of Indiana was opened by Indian Treaty, made arrangements for several families to move to Indiana and form what was to become known as the New Jersey Settlement. The families coming to Indiana consisted of the NewKirks, Dupois, Roses, Fosters, Husted, Mullens, Odgens and the Carlstons. They settled in what is now the north part of Franklin County and the south part of Union County, with Fairfield, Bath Springs, and Roseburg as their main towns. Apparently most of the people were farmers and entered land as soon as possible. The Rose family was represented by two Revolutionary War Veterans, Ezekiel and William Rose, and their families. A son of William Rose, John Burroughs Rose is credited as being the Founder of the town of Roseburg. According to the Historical Atlas of Union County, published in 1884, Ezekiel and Uriah Rose came to Indiana in 1814 but according to our family records the family of Uriah Rose did not come to Indiana until 1816.

In 1818 Ezekiel Rose received title from the Government for 160 acres of land described as the south east  $\frac{1}{4}$  of Section 15, Township 10. Range 2 West. This farm was located about a mile north east of Fairfield on the north side of the Union, Franklin County line. State Road 101 between Fairfield and Roseburg cut across the south east corner of the farm. The town of Bath Springs was located about one mile east of the farm. On Aug. 17, 1824 Ezekiel Rose deeded this farm to his son Uriah and his son-in-law James Cook. The farm was after farmed by Ezekiel Rose, a son of Uriah Rose and was in the family for many years. So far as I can find out there are no Roses living in the Fairfield neighborhood today.

Following the original settlers, a large number of the New Jersey Roses came west, settling in Franklin County Indiana, and in Butler and Hamilton Counties Ohio.

Ezekiel Rose is buried in a well marked grave in the family lot of his son Uriah Rose. His grave is marked by a Government Marker which carries the following inscription: Ezekiel Rose, Revolutionary War Veteran, 1st Regiment, Hunterton County. Served from 1776-1783. His tombstone carries the following information, Ezekiel Rose, Died Dec. 5, 1824, Age 79 yrs. & 7 mo. In the book "American Revolution, Roster of Soldiers and Patriots Buried in Indiana" by Mrs. Roscoe C. O'Byrne we find the following; Ezekiel Rose, Union County Indiana, Born about 1765. Served as Private, 1st Regiment Hunterton, County, Militia under Capts. William Tucker and Henry Phillips. In active service in detachment under Capt. Tucker. Entered Oct. 15, 1777, and mustered out Oct. 31, 1777. Proof: Adjutant General Office, Trenton, New Jersey. Died Dec. 5, 1824. Buried: Bath Springs Cemetery, Harmony Township, Union County, Indiana. Government Marker. Married three times. Information collected by Elnora P. Campbell, Liberty, Indiana.

On page 8 of "Salem County New Jersey in the Revolution" by Stewart (1934) we find a roster of a company of Minutemen in Pittsgrove Township, Salem County, New Jersey, dated Sept. 20, 1775. This roster shows that Ezekiel Rose served as a Private under Capt. Jacob Dubois and Col. Samuel Dick. On page 33 of the "NewKirk Family" by Dr. A.B. NewKirk (1934) the same roster and information appears.

THE MEISTHER, MESCHTER OR MASTERS FAMILY

In 1734 Gregorius Meisther and his wife Maria came to Philadelphia, Pa. on the ship "St. Andrew" from Silesia. They were members of the Schwenkfelder Church, and came to this country to get away from religious persecution in Silesia. The Schwenkfelders were a small, very strict, religious sect founded by Casper Von Schwenckfeld in the sixteenth century. Most of the families were farmers and settled in Pennsylvania close to Philadelphia.

By permission of the Schwenkfelder Library, Pennsburg, Pa., I am copying from the book "The Genealogical Record of the Schwenkfelder Families", (1923) that part of the Meschter family that applies to our family using the family numbers as they appear in the book.

History of the Masters Family

(45) GREGORIUS MEISTHER (Meschter) , JR. (E 43) b about Nov. 1705; d Dec. 16, 1775; he was the youngest son of Balthaser Meisther who died Apr. 1, 1723, and is buried in the "Veiheeg" in Harpersdorf, and who was a gardener in Langneundorf, Silesia. On July 25, 1733, Gregorius Meisther married Maria Krauss (E 120); d Nov. 11, 1756, youngest daughter of Melchior Krauss, Gardner in Langneundorf. They were married in Berthelsdorf, Saxony, and came to Pa. in 1734. Gregorius made "his mark" in signing the Oath of Allegiance. He was naturalized Apr. 10, 1759. He bought land in Hereford Twp. Pa. where he lived and died. Both Gregorius Meisther and wife are buried in Washington Schwenkfelder Cemetery. Gregorius was a brother of Melchior Meisther (E66).

Uriah Rose was born on his Grandfather's farm in Harmony Township, Union County, Indiana. This farm was located about one and one half miles north east of Fairfield, Indiana. Very little is known of his early life except that he was a member of the Bath Springs Presbyterian Church. In 1844 Uriah Rose and Elizabeth Masters were married at Fairfield, Indiana, and for the next twenty one years lived on a farm in Decatur County, Indiana, where he farmed and served as a Circuit Rider Minister. While living at Burney Uriah Rose purchased two farms, one of 116 acres and the other of 80 acres. On December 23, 1865, Uriah Rose purchased 160 acres in Ross Township, Clinton County, Indiana, for nine thousand six hundred dollars. In January, 1866, the family moved to their new home at Rossville in two bob sleds and drove their livestock overland. In 1882 he purchased a home at 705 East Walnut Street, in Frankfort, Indiana, and retired from farming. There is no record of his ever serving as a Minister after he moved to Rossville. Uriah and Elizabeth Rose and their daughters Josephine and Elizabeth are buried in the family lot in the Rossville Cemetery.
